KSA

"My primary goal is to be an exemplary and leading nation in all aspects, and I will work with you in achieving that."

— King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud

History & Vision 2030

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is the birthplace of Islam and home to its two holiest sites, Makkah and Madinah. Formally unified in 1932 by King Abdulaziz Al Saud, the Kingdom possesses a deep foundation rooted in Arabian traditions.

Under Vision 2030, Saudi Arabia is dynamically evolving into a world-class global hub, blending centuries of ancient heritage with ambitious, futuristic development.

Culture & Architecture

Architecture: A harmony of heritage and modernity—ranging from ancient mud-brick fortresses in Diriyah to modern skyscrapers like the Kingdom Centre Skybridge and Jeddah Corniche towers.

Warm Arabian hospitality: Rooted in deep-seated Islamic traditions and a historic culture of welcoming guests. Men traditionally wear the Thobe and Ghutra, while women wear the Abaya. Visitors are welcomed warmly and advised to dress modestly in public areas.
